

Looking for creative ways to boost your fundraising efforts?

Here are a few ideas we've gathered for you!

Host a Bottle Return Drive

A bottle return drive is a great way to get your team together and raise money!

Themed Dress Up Day (or No Uniform Day)

Dress up day is a great fundraiser idea to show some love to the cancer cause that means the most to you, your favorite decade, sports team or pajamas. Just donate between $1 and $5 to participate.

Host a Bake Sale

Hosting a bake sale might be the most delicious fundraiser. Ask your parents to help you whip up their favorite tasty treat for your fundraising bake sale.

Movie Day

Who wouldn't love to skip class for a day to watch movies, especially when donating to a great cause? Set a goal, raise the funds, vote on a movie!

Pie Your Teacher or Principal

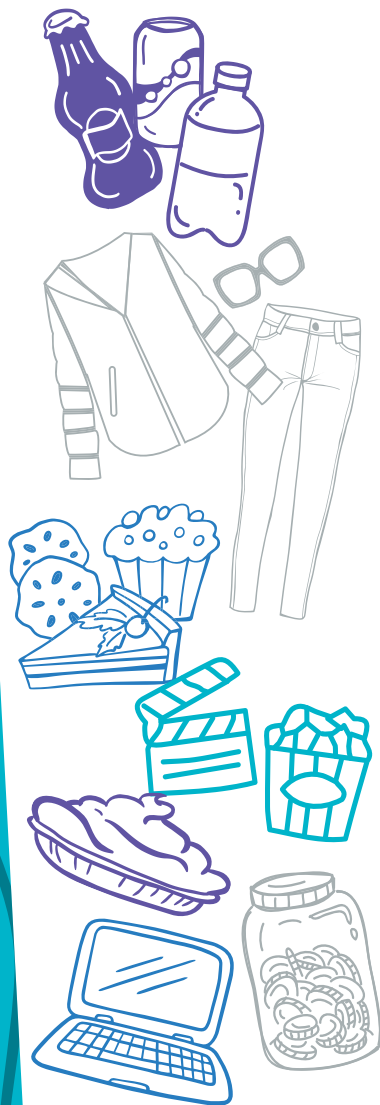

Students can donate money to see their teacher or principal drop their "serious" reputation and do something silly like get pied! The double payoff is well worth it!

Donation Jars

Dress up an empty jar to put in your classroom, local coffee shop or favorite restaurant. Tape your story to the jar to increase donations!

Host a Facebook Fundraiser

Create a fundraiser on yours or your parents' personal Facebook page to easily share with friends and family! You can set a goal and all of your Facebook friends can see your progress as you receive donations!

Want to share an idea that worked well for you?

Email us at BaldforBucks@RoswellPark.org and we'll share your idea in our next newsletter!

BaldforBucks.org

benefiting

